

Annapolis Convention

- September 11 to September 14, 1786
 - Annapolis, Maryland
 - Purpose - How to “fix” the articles of confederation
 - Alexander Hamilton (New York) – MUST resolve issues with the articles.
-
- 12 delegates attended from 5 states (New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Virginia)
 - New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and North Carolina did not arrive in time.
 - Connecticut, Maryland, South Carolina and Georgia did NOT send anyone.
-
- Not enough in attendance so suggested all the states send representatives to Philadelphia in May to discuss the issues further.
 - Rebellions, Shays’ rebellion, (August – February) made it urgent that they met

